UZBEKISTAN – THE TOURISM DESTINATION

Monday, 13th of March 2017, Zunfthaus zur Meisen, Münsterhof 20, 8001 Zurich

The Swiss-Asian Chamber of Commerce and Uzbek-Swiss Chamber of Commerce and Industry kindly invite you to a key event on Uzbekistan's Tourism Destination.

The Uzbekistan Delegation of the State Tourism Committee of the Republic of Uzbekistan and Uzbek Tour Operators are attending the Tourism Fair "ITB Berlin-2017". After this Fair the Uzbekistan Delegation will come to Zurich for our event.

Mr. Sharapov Anvar Kurbanovich, the Chairman of the State Committee on Tourism Development of Uzbekistan, will hold a speech about Tourism Potential of Uzbekistan.

On this occasion, our Chamber is organising a briefing and networking event followed by a luncheon. Most importantly, we hope this will be a match-making event where new business opportunities may be identified and deep linkages may be forged.

Key Information about the country. The Republic of Uzbekistan is one of the largest countries in Central Asia, with a special geographical and geopolitical position and abundance of the natural and human resources. Uzbekistan consists of 12 provinces and the Autonomous Republic of Karakalpakstan. Independence and sovereignty of the Republic of Uzbekistan was proclaimed in August 31, 1991.

Total territory - 447 400 km<sup>2</sup>. Most of the territory of Uzbekistan is occupied by plains (about four fifth of its territory). One of the main – plain is Turanian lowland. To the east and north-east of the country there are
